

I am opposed to any proposal that would reduce or eliminate the current Morse Code requirement for Amateur Radio Licenses. The Service will be weakened by such an action, and a valuable operating mode will be essentially deleted.